

Share Mother's Day with writers

Ladies, it's time to get all "glammed up" in preparation for the annual Paper Plus Books & Bubbles celebrations this Mother's Day.

Part of the nationally acclaimed series, Paper Plus marketing manager Lyle Hastings said the Mother's Day event epitomised the ultimate in a girly afternoon hosted by the celebrated radio personality, author and Paper Plus Book Ambassador Kerre Woodham.

The high tea also features some of New Zealand's most dynamic women including April Ieremia, Jax Hamilton, Wendyl Nissen and Marianne Elliott, all hugely successful writers.

Join these wonderful women for a glass of bubbly and a toast to special mothers from across Waikato, as well as an array of sweet treats, entertainment, insightful discussion with the authors and of course plenty of laughs.

The celebrations will be held at the Claudelands Event and Exhibition Centre in Hamilton, starting at 2.30pm on Sunday May 13.

Tickets are available from all Hamilton Paper Plus stores or online at www.paperplus.co.nz/events.
